First... let me tell you the remaining "rules of time".

How did you find out that Naomi's baby and I could control time?

Grow?

Rule Five: Your powers will grow.

I had three left to tell you... right?

...Yes.

Your powers have just barely awakened.

Right now, you can only stop time for a minute or two at most, and you can't even turn it back half a day.

How much... will they grow?

I don't know, but there is a ceiling somewhere.

I see...

Rule six is this.

You can use this pocket watch to control your powers.

What do I do with this...?

Wow... What's the trick...?

Just focus, look at the hands, and picture the time turning back.

And now it's passed on to me...

There's no trick. It's just a plain old antique to an ordinary person.

...What is it?

Rule seven is the final rule.

It's been passed down for generations in order to draw out our power.

Yes.
